

From: root@wt4.usdoj.gov@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR,antitrust@ftc.gov@inetgw,Ralph@essen...
Date: 11/5/01 12:09pm
Subject: Microsoft Hegemony: States Should Seize The Initiative

CC: letters@latimes.com@inetgw,letters@sjmercury.com@i...

Re: States Weigh Going It Alone in Legal Battle With Microsoft

- > "This consent decree will remedy the problems
- > that were caused by Microsoft's unlawful conduct,
- > prevent the recurrence of those problems and
- > restore competition in the software industry."

This says one thing on the surface but below says the DOJ is more interested in letting the mafia run the software business while it maintains a shell of a government agency, faux arm of We The People. Perhaps the States should seize the initiative to become the true arm of We The People...

- > "Does anyone think this settlement is going
- > to change Microsoft's behavior?" said Scott G. McNealy

If McNealy and golden golf ball buddies were serious about breaking the Microsoft Hegemony they would call for eliminating it's IP protection for the building of a true platform for competition on the merits...

We The People
Take Back Our Flag
From The United Corporations Of America